

ULSTER ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE SOCIETY

THI - RICHHILL CASTLE 21st OCTOBER 2011

This half-day event, organised in association with Richhill Townscape Heritage Initiative (THI) Partnership, is targeted at owners of buildings in the Richhill Conservation Area which are eligible for grant aid as part of the Heritage Lottery Fund's THI. It is also open to professionals working on projects within the area. The event is kindly hosted by the owners of Richhill Castle, which sits at the heart of the village.

Cost: £10 per person

- 9.30-9.45 Tea/coffee
- 9.45-10.00 Welcome
Primrose Wilson, Chair of 'Home and Dry', Ulster Architectural Heritage Society
- 10.00-10.15 The important role of the owner in Richhill Conservation Area
Keith Gilmour, Project Manager, Richhill THI
- 10.15-10.30 Inserting new buildings in conservation area gap sites
Rita Harkin/Jody Wylie, UAHS
- 10.30-12.30 Traditional building skills demonstrations
Lime plastering : Mark Patterson, Heritage Traditional Building Products Ltd.
Timber sash window repair : joiners from Northern Ireland Environment Agency

To book contact: Keith.Gilmour@armagh.gov.uk
028 37529600 ext. 3322

